

GLP Quality Assurance Manager Job Opportunity

I am currently sourcing candidates for an opportunity as a GLP Quality Assurance Manager responsible for managing the quality system of preclinical activities. This position is with an international pharmaceutical company located in Portugal, business language is English and they offer a fantastic relocation package including 3 months paid for accommodation, €5,000 moving allowance and private Portuguese language lessons.

If this could be of interest to anyone in this group, please send an email back confirming your interest and we can arrange a call to discuss further.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
